PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Syneos Health, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018 (the "Form 10-K") by March 1, 2019, without unreasonable effort or expense, because our management is conducting a review of the Company's internal control over financial reporting in conjunction with finalizing the Form 10-K. On February 21, 2019, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") notified the Company that it has commenced an investigation into the Company's revenue accounting policies, internal controls and related matters, and requested that the Company retain certain documents for the periods beginning with January 1, 2017. As an additional measure prior to the Company filing the Form 10-K, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an independent review of the Company's revenue accounting policies, internal controls and related matters with the assistance of outside counsel and accounting advisors.

The Company is making this filing in order to allow the Audit Committee to complete its review and to provide the Company's management, under the supervision and with the participation of our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, with sufficient time to finalize its assessment of the Company's revenue accounting policies, internal controls and related matters. The Company is fully cooperating with the SEC.

The Company currently expects that it will be able to conclude the remaining work necessary in time for the Company to file the Form 10-K within the fifteen-calendar day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.

Forward Looking Statements

This notification of late filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements contained in this notification that do not relate to matters of historical fact should be considered forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, the Company's expectations that it will file the Form 10-K within the time period prescribed by Rule 12b-25. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations.

These statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, the following: that the Company is not able to complete its Form 10-K in the time period that it currently expects, the risk that the Company determines that there are deficiencies in its internal control over financial reporting that could materially affect our financial statements, and the risk that the nature and scope of the SEC investigation may change or that other proceedings may be instituted. These and other important factors discussed under the caption "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, and our other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements made in this notification. Any such forward-looking statements represent management's estimates as of the date of this notification. While we may elect to update such forward-looking statements at some point in the future, we disclaim any obligation to do so, even if subsequent events cause our views to change, except as required under applicable law. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing our views as of any date subsequent to the date of this notification.
